

FY24 Food First Capacity Grant

Frequently Asked Questions

Eligibility

1. What type of organizations are eligible for funding?
Eligible applicants include current MFB Network Partners, Pantry on the Go Partners, Higher Education partners and partners of our Redistribution Organizations (RDOs) in good standing. Partners that have not received a Capacity Grant in the last year will have priority. Please see the Program Overview for more detail on eligibility.
2. May I apply for this funding opportunity even if I have already received a grant from MFB?
Partners who have already received a Capacity Grant in FY24 may not apply again.
3. What is meant by Capacity building?
Capacity building supports the programmatic capacity and capabilities for eligible MFB partners through investments in infrastructure – systems, operations, and items that strengthen the organization and improve neighbor experience. Examples include equipment, vehicles, refrigeration, storage, and technology; items to improve visibility, safety, and efficiency of same-day distributions; marketing, fundraising, and web development; skill-building for board members and staff; diversity and equity initiatives; and leadership development. The successful outcome of these initiatives could include an increase in pounds distributed, the number of neighbors served, the nutritional quality of food distributed, expanded capacity to run new or additional programs, and/or an improvement in organizational infrastructure, vision, strategic direction, sustainability.
4. Can we use these funds to:
 - Improve our website? Yes. If improving your website helps you increase your capacity and improve food access.
 - Help purchase a box truck to transport food from Food Bank to our site? Yes, because the box truck would expand your capacity. [Note: This is only for partners who have been approved for pickup and transport of food within their distribution model.]
 - Help purchase a box truck to transport food to neighbors who are disabled or restricted by age? Yes, because the box truck would expand your capacity and allow you to deliver more food to more neighbors.
 - Sponsor a workshop on sign language that can be supported with grant funds? Yes, since this would increase/expand food access to a group of your neighbors.
 - Pay a person a stipend to interpret Spanish to English speaking volunteers? Yes, since this would increase/expand food access to a group of your neighbors.

- Cover cardboard boxes, bags, or other “single use” items for packing foods to give away to our neighbors? No. MFB grants are intended to provide on-going, longer-term capacity to programs. However, reusable bags, carts/buggies and similar items that could help your neighbors access more food may be requested and could be approved.
 - Print large signs, obtain feather flags, and traffic cones to advertise a distribution and/or direct flow of traffic? Yes, if these items will allow you to expand the amount of food or number of neighbors served in a safe manner.
5. Do you have examples of activities the Food First Capacity Grant initiative will NOT fund?
In general, MFB will not provide financial support for food, ongoing operational expenses, or items previously purchased.
